LEGENDARY RUM DRINKS-$12

Knickerbocker

The Knickerbocker is the oldest documented rum cocktail. It's origin dates from the 1850s Knickerbocker Boat Club in Manhattan. It is made by combining Virgin Island rum, like CRUZAN single barrel, with lime juice, raspberry syrup and Cointreau.

Planter's Punch

Jamaican sugar planters originated the Planter's Punch in 1878. It is made by combining Appleton V/X rum, orange juice, pineapple juice, lemon juice, grenadine, sugar syrup and a few dashes of bitters.

Dark and Stormy

After World War I, members of the His Majesty's British Navy, at Bermuda's famed dockyards, first combined Goslings Black Seal rum with Barrett's Ginger Beer to originate the Original Dark and Stormy

Mai Tai

There is some dispute on who created the Mai Tai. Victor A. Bergstrom from California's Trader Vic's Bar claims that he first made the cocktail in 1944. It is a combination of Brugal Extra Dry rum, Mount Gay Black Strap rum, Almond Syrup, Cointreau and fresh lime juice

Pain Killer

The iconic drink of the BVI..the original pain killer was created in the 1970s by Daphne Henderson at the Soggy Dollar Bar at White Bay on the island of Jost Van Dyke.
